

Collaboration

Students, parents, and staff share responsibility for student learning. By reading this compact, we can better understand how everyone contributes to student success.

In addition, by signing and returning the accompanying slip, you and your child agree to do your best to adhere to your specific responsibilities. Collaboratively, we can develop academically successful students here at Jamestown Elementary.

Our Mission

To educate all students to participate in and contribute to a changing global society by actively involving them in an education program that emphasizes basic and life-long learning skills in an environment of mutual respect.

Parent Responsibilities

School Responsibilities

As a school, we will:

- provide high-quality curriculum and instruction that meets the Pennsylvania Core Curriculum while providing interventions when necessary.
- meet annually with parents to discuss Title 1 requirements, funds, and policies.
- be accessible to parents and respond in a timely fashion via voicemail, email, notes, and/or requested conferences.
- communicate behavioral and academic progress through the use of daily folders, planners, quarterly report cards, and conferences (when necessary).
- collect and analyze data to monitor student progress and drive instruction.
- maintain high standards for student performance and clear expectations for what students are taught in a supportive and effective learning environment.
- provide authorized parents opportunities to volunteer on field trips, within the classroom, and at school events.

As a parent, I will:

- ensure my child is prepared for learning by making sure he/she receives adequate sleep, proper nutrition and a good attendance record.
- communicate with my child's teacher by removing materials in the take home folder on a daily basis, returning necessary materials/forms in a timely manner, and reviewing homework, report cards, agenda books, and other progress reports.
- try to make arrangements to enable my child to attend tutoring when requested and contact my child's teacher or district with any concerns regarding my child's education.
- establish a set time for completing homework each day which includes providing an appropriate space away from conflicting situations and promote positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- to the extent possible, volunteer in my child's classroom and participate in Title I and PTO events and meetings.

Student Responsibilities

As a student, I will:

- come to school prepared to learn.
- have high expectations for myself and approach all tasks with a positive attitude.
- follow school rules and dress codes.
- treat the staff, parents, other students, and visitors with respect.
- bring supplies and completed homework assignments back to school everyday and ask for help when I need it.
- read at least 30 minutes everyday.
- talk to my family about what I learn and do at school every day.
- be responsible for giving and returning forms and papers to my parent and/or teacher.
